

It's okay to consider color

...as long as it's green.

Judging you by what you look like instead of your qualifications is discrimination. What matters is your ability to pay for housing. It's illegal to discriminate because of race, color, religion, sex, national origin, disability or familial status in the sale or rental of housing.

If you believe you may be a victim of housing discrimination, contact HUD or your local Fair Housing Center:

Visit www.hud.gov/fairhousing or call the HUD Hotline

Your Choice. Your Right. Your Home.

A public service message from the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development in partnership with the National Fair Housing Alliance. The federal Fair Housing Act prohibits discrimination because of race, color, religion, national origin, sex, familial status or disability. For more information, visit www.hud.gov/fairhousing.
